

VISUAL MERCHANDISER G.A.S based in BERLIN or MUNICH

Quiksilver is the world's No.1 surf and snowboard company. We are currently looking for a Merchandiser for our Retail Network covering the Area Germany, Austria and Switzerland based in Berlin or Munich, to cover a Maternity / Parental leave

Type of contract: fixed term contract from April 2017 to January 2018 approximatively

This is the perfect opportunity for someone with retail experience and instore merchandising who wants to specialise in merchandising.

Working with the team of our own retail network stores, your responsibilities would include:

- participating in shop refits depending on projects
- analyzing stores configurations and proposing creative retail solutions to improve sell
- analyzing financial results in store and taking actions from there
- money mapping => Action plan
- window dressing
- putting in place point of sale elements
- communicating with the sales force / Retail Management / Merchandising Management
- training retail staff in instore merchandising
- reporting internally to your team
- being an ambassador of the brand's values, the culture & the spirit.

The role involves travels on a daily basis across Germany, Austria and Switzerland however you must be based in Berlin or Munich.

The ideal candidate must be creative and have excellent organisational, problem solving and communication skills.

It is also essential that you are self-motivated and autonomous. This varied role requires the ability to adapt to different situations, take a pragmatic approach and show initiative.

English fluent mandatory + driving license

If you are passionate about our brands and core sports and are interested in applying for this position please send your CV and cover letter to:

abdenour.salhi@quiksilver-europe.com

laure.barillot@quiksilver-europe.com

ekaterina.braginskaya@quiksilver.ru

We look forward to hearing from you