Your tasks

- Cutting and editing social media clips from existing video material for TikTok, Instagram, YouTube Shorts, and more
- Developing new ideas and creative concepts for viral short-form videos
- Planning and implementing the social media strategy across various platforms and accounts
- Editing Rough-Cuts and post-production of longer YouTube videos (long-form content), including storytelling, dramaturgy, and suspense building
- Active trend scouting: identifying current social media trends and integrating them into Fabio's content
- Collaborating with Fabio and the team to produce authentic and high-quality content

Your profile

- Deep understanding of the dynamics and algorithms of TikTok, Instagram, YouTube, etc.
- Experience in social media management and content creation
- Excellent video editing skills with programs like Premiere Pro, Final Cut, or DaVinci Resolve
- Profound YouTube expertise, especially in editing longer videos (long-form content)
- Passion for action sports, ideally with mountain biking knowledge
- Creativity, innovation, and a flair for viral content
- Experience in managing or building successful social media channels is a plus
- Strong communication skills and the ability to actively engage with the community

What we offer

- A creative, exciting, and varied role
- A straightforward entrepreneurial structure
- A modern, young working environment with many benefits
- Flexible working hours, remote work, initially on site with the team

If you're excited about actively shaping the future of Fabio's channels, we look forward to your application!
