I'm James (aka Bear), an action sports lifestyle, commercial and event photographer. I also create cinemagraphs for commercial, advertising and marketing purposes

Currently based between Spain and the UK, but I'm always ready to travel and looking for the next adventure

As a freelance photographer I've had the privilege of working with international brands such as Rayne Longboards, Ennui, Hackbrett Longboards and many more

Get in touch with project ideas and let's create something epic.!
