

HELLO,

My name is Agnė. I'm a creative from Lithuania and I specialize in graphic design, illustration and animation. I call myself a creative because I like to experiment with different art forms. This is one of the most important aspects of any creative work for me - experimenting. I also value strong concept which is the key of good design.

